Viburnums are some of the most attractive, versatile, adaptable shrubs for the home landscape. They can be used as hedges or screens as well as in mixed perennial and shrub borders, but they can also stand alone as specimen plants.

They usually take the form of shrubs, but some species can become spectacular small ornamental trees.

Evergreen Viburnum
Species	Height x Width	Bloom Colour	Bloom Time	Scent	Description
Viburnum davidii (David's Viburnum)	3' x 3'	White	Late Spring	No	Dense, compact habit with blue berries in fall. Looks best when planted in masses.
Viburnum tinus 'Spring Bouquet'	6-8' x 4-6'	White	Early Spring	Slight	Great for hedges and screens and can be trained as a tree. Reddish pink buds produce white flowers.

Deciduous Viburnum
Species	Height x Width	Bloom Colour	Bloom Time	Scent	Description
 Viburnum 'Handsome Devil'	5-8' x 6-7'	White	Late Spring	No	In mild winters this Viburnum will remain evergreen. Great alternative to Photinia for hedging.
Viburnum 'Juddii'	6-8' x 6-8'	White	Early Spring	Yes	Plump pink buds open to white snowball-like clusters in early spring.
 Viburnum 'Shiny Dancer'	3-5' x 4-6'	White	Spring	No	Gorgeous waxy green leaves with red margin. Fantastic fall color.
Viburnum burkwoodii	6-10' x 4-5'	White	Spring	Yes	Compact, upright habit. Perfect for smaller yards.
 Viburnum carlesii 'Spice Baby'	3-5' x 3-5'	White	Spring	Yes	Large, fragrant blooms in spring. Compact grower.
 Viburnum cassinoides 'Lil' Ditty'	1-2' x 1-2'	White	Late Spring	No	Puffy white flowers in late spring. Easy to grow.
Viburnum lantana 'Mohican'	4-6' x 6-8'	White	Late Spring	No	Flowers last over a month, followed by orange-red berries in late summer.

Deciduous Viburnum

Species	Height x Width	Bloom Colour	Bloom Time	Scent	Description
 Viburnum nudum 'Brandywine'	5-6' x 5-6'	White	Spring	No	Berries transform from green to pink to blue. Exceptional fall color.
Viburnum opulus 'Sterile'	10-12' x 8-10'	White	Summer	No	Masses of pure white, snowball shaped flowers in summer.
Viburnum plicatum 'Summer Snowflake'	6-8' x 8-10'	White	Late Spring	No	Tiered horizontal branches show off the almost flat white flowers.
 Viburnum plicatum 'Wabi Sabi'	2-3' x 3-4'	White	Late Spring-Summer	No	Pure white, lacecap flowers. Perfect for mass plantings.
Viburnum plicatum 'Watanabe'	4-6' x 4-6'	White	Spring	No	Green leaves take on stunning hues of gorgeous red and bronze over Autumn prior to falling for the Winter period.
Viburnum plicatum tomentosum 'Mariesii'	8-12' x 8-12'	White	Late Spring	No	Red berries in late summer stand out against dark purple fall foliage.
 Viburnum plicatum tomentosum 'Steady Eddy'	4-5' x 4-5'	White	Spring to mid summer	No	Foliage is dark green, glossy, and has the hallmark deep veining of the species, which altogether looks lovely in the landscape and performs well as a filler for cut flower arrangements. Fall color is a brilliant purplish-burgundy.
 Viburnum rhytidophylloides 'Emerald Envy'	6-8' x 6-8'	Creamy White	Spring	No	Dark, glossy, green leaves with creamy, white flowers in spring.
